

TWELVE TO FACE FLAG TODAY IN CLASSIC SUBURBAN RACE

Gold Heels, Advance Guard, and Blues Favorites in Big Event.

MARKS OPENING AT SHEEPSHEAD

Odom Will Have Mount on Gallant Old Herbert.

PENTECOST CUTS A FIGURE

Distance One and One-quarter Miles, With a $10,000 Purse—Speculation Rife as to the Winner—Bugle Sounds Entry at 4 o'clock.

NEW YORK, June 12.—The $10,000 Suburban Handicap at one and one-quarter miles will be run at Sheepshead Bay tomorrow afternoon, the horses going to the post about 4 o'clock. There are twelve entries.

As was the case in the Brooklyn Handicap, speculation is rife as to the winner. When J. B. Haggin's Watercolor, who was all along the favorite in the winter books, was declared out of the Suburban the other day, Gen. F. C. McElwain's Gold Heels was made the choice, partly because of his form of a year ago and partly for the reason that he has shown vast improvement in his work this spring.

To Be the Favorite.

His work has been so good that the more prominent layers said tonight that he would in all probability remain favorite when the first prices appear tomorrow afternoon.

Advance Guard, the five-year-old Great Tom horse, who has displayed consistent form all the year, will be practically on even terms with Gold Heels in the betting. Conservative turfmen agree that Advance Guard comes very near being the best of the older horses in training. Frank Farrell's four-year-old colt Blue, with 124 pounds, is considered next in point of form and excellence. Blues has been an erratic performer this year, but Farrell and his trainer said today that he had shown marked improvement in the last week, and that they would not be at all surprised to see him win tomorrow, under favorable circumstances.

Odom to Ride Herbert.

W. C. Rollins' five-year-old Herbert, by Albert-Bonnie Ala, is another dangerous favorite, it is thought. He will carry 121 pounds and Odom, who is in fine form just now.

Keeping in mind his great race in the Brooklyn, when he finished third, J. E. Madden's three-year-old colt Pentecost will cut a big figure in the betting. Pentecost is the only three-year-old in the list of starters, and precedent is against him, as no horse of his age has ever won the big event. He will carry only 99 pounds, and will be handled by Redfern, another first-class boy who has been improving daily.

Reina and Contend are well thought of.

ST. LOUIS DERBY TODAY.

Rich Three-Year-Old Stake the Feature of the Card at Fair Grounds.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 13.—Favorites had a good day at the Fair Grounds this afternoon, four of them getting home in front. The stepchildren resulted in an upset. Very Light, at 8 to 1, proving the victor. Nicky D. won the handicap.

Tomorrow the great St. Louis Derby, worth $15,000, will be the feature of the card. The entries include a number of the best three-year-olds in the West. Terra Firma, Abe Cahn's good colt, will likely go to the post favorite, with Aladdin and Little Scout, the Bennett horses, as second choices. Coburn will have the mount on the best of the pair, which will probably be Aladdin. The dark one is the Turney Brothers' Glenwater, who showed good form in his starts this year. Flora Pomona, the double colts winner, will also be heavily supported.

Tomorrow the Latonia Trophy, a stake event for two-year-olds, will be run. It has an added purse of several thousand dollars, and Mayor Fleischmann has donated a beautiful loving cup to the winner of the race. GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Cap. Sam Brown will allow Odom, his stable jockey, to ride Clarence Mackay's Hero in the American Derby. His own horse, Hyphen, will not start in the big race, owing to his having developed a splint.

Colonel Bill, the three-year-old who has shown such good form in his last few races, won his maiden race at Benning last fall, when he was considered only an ordinary performer. In J. E. Madden's hands the colt has developed wonderfully and with light weight up stands a chance of beating anybody's horse. He has not yet shown that he can carry weight over a distance.

GRAVESEND MEETING COMES TO A CLOSE

The Dwyer Colt Ethics Wins Handicap

Only Two Favorites Win and Books Recoup Some of Their Losses.

NEW YORK, June 13.—The Gravesend meeting closed today with a fair card, which drew a crowd of 6,000 and provided some hot finishes. Only two favorites won, however, which enabled the bookmakers to get back some of the money they lost on previous days.

The feature was a $1,200 handicap at a mile and one furlong. The talent was in something of a dilemma as to the probable winner. Ethics and Smart Set opened equal favorites, at 8 to 5, but the former receded to two, while the latter held steady. General McDewee's Hanover colt, Hindred, was a strong buy, and was played down from 8 to 1 to four.

He proceeded to make the running for a mile and then tired, Ethics, under Burns' treatment, coming on in the stretch and winning, ridden out by a length in 1:54.1-5. Vincer, 12 to 1, got up in time to take the place from Hindred in the last jump by a head. Smart Set sulked and was five lengths away.

Next in importance was a handicap for two-year-olds at about six furlongs, in which Julia Fleischmann's Star Ruby colt, Africander, with top weight, 126 pounds, was second in favor at 4 to 1, with Tantalus Cup third, at five. These youngsters split up the purse, Africander being an easy winner by a length, in 1:19.1-5. Tantalus Cup, 12 to 1, was a strong buy for the place by a head. Bensonhurst led to the top of the stretch, where weight began to tell and the favorite, well ridden by Shaw, drew away and won.

William Barrie's colt, Criterion, made his first appearance of the season in the first race, and was installed favorite. He won at the end comfortably.

Thirteen favorites out of nineteen have won at Gravesend within the last three days, and the ring has suffered in consequence.

In Thursday's sale of the Belle Meade yearlings at Gravesend the half-brother to Chiff, by Loyalist-Duchess, was purchased by Senator P. H. McCarren for $2,100, and the half-brother to the good three-year-old of last year, The Parader, Inspector R. Pretence, went to W. J. Arkell for $1,500.

Dixieland, the American Derby candidate, will probably not go to Chicago to start in the big race. It is likely he will be a starter in this afternoon's Suburban Handicap.

Brigadier has probably seen his best days. He is broken, winded and starting aboard, and the horse will likely never again run a mile in 1:37.2.

CAPT. LEMLY, JUDGE ADVOCATE, TO RETIRE

Application Filed Because of Failing Eyesight.

Recent Line Changes Made Examination and Disqualification Possible—May Go to Sea for a Time.

Capt. Samuel C. Lemly, the Judge Advocate General of the Navy, who conducted the case of the Navy Department before the Schley Court of Inquiry, has applied for retirement from active service on account of physical disability. He was examined Thursday by the retiring board, which has not yet made its report. Captain Lemly is suffering from eye trouble, and other physical ailments which have had a serious effect on his health.

Application Was Unexpected.

Captain Lemly's application for retirement was unexpected. He had intended to stick to his duties for a while longer, despite his physical condition, but certain circumstances tended to hasten his action. His actual rank in the line of the navy is lieutenant commander, and he holds the higher rank of captain by virtue of his temporary office of judge advocate general. Several recent retirements of rear admirals and captains have brought Captain Lemly to the second place on the lineal list of lieutenant commanders, and he would soon be ordered up for examination for promotion to the grade of commander. Should he take this examination and should the examining board find him physically disqualified for promotion, it would be necessary for him to go on the retired list as a lieutenant commander.

May Be Retired as Captain.

Retirement while he holds the office of judge advocate general will probably enable him to go on the retired list as a captain, although the question whether he holds the actual rank by virtue of his judicial position has not been settled.

It has been held by the department, however, that bureau chiefs, some of whom are actually captains, but all of whom are nominally rear admirals by virtue of the bureau positions, may be retired as rear admirals if the retirement takes effect while they are serving under temporary commissions as rear admirals.

May Resume Active Duty for a Time.

Secretary Moody will not admit that Captain Lemly has asked to be sent to sea, but he does admit that long-continued office work has impaired the captain's eyesight and that the captain would doubtless be glad to take the command of a ship for the sake of a change. It is quite likely his desire will be indulged.

In speaking of the captain's eyesight yesterday afternoon, Secretary Moody said that his impairment was so serious as to cause a question of the retirement of the sufferer. It is probable, however, that such a retirement will be preceded by both sea duty and promotion.

Glenn scored one for the Washington contingent at Gravesend Thursday.

Ever since this colt ran second at 100 to 1 in the recent Benning meeting, he has performed consistently and is a pretty fair sort of selling two-year-old. The Columbia Stable secured a bargain in the horse when they paid only $500 for him.

Whitechapel, the two-year-old that made Artie stretch his neck to win the Tremont Stakes at Gravesend on Thursday, is a son of White Rose, the "Columbia filly" that ran and won the "Columbia" stakes at Benning last year. White Rose still holds the record at Benning for six furlongs.

Monte Carlo has the honor of being the first two-year-old to win a race among all-year-olds. Lyman's colt had all the worst of the weights, too.

There is some talk of increasing the value of the Suburban and Brooklyn Handicaps to $20,000 each. An increase of the Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps of the Brooklyn and Coney Island Jockey Clubs favors such an increase.

Thirteen favorites out of nineteen have won at Gravesend within the last three days, and the ring has suffered in consequence.

In Thursday's sale of the Belle Meade yearlings at Gravesend the half-brother to Chiff, by Loyalist-Duchess, was purchased by Senator P. H. McCarren for $2,100, and the half-brother to the good three-year-old of last year, The Parader, Inspector R. Pretence, went to W. J. Arkell for $1,500.

Dixieland, the American Derby candidate, will probably not go to Chicago to start in the big race. It is likely he will be a starter in this afternoon's Suburban Handicap.

Bail Not Yet Fixed for the Supposed Assault on Mades.

The case of Patrick Callan, charged in the Police Court yesterday with assault with intent to kill Nicholas P. Mades, was continued indefinitely. The action was taken to await the result of Mades' injuries. Mades is said to be still in a precarious condition.

The arrest of Callan was the result of information given by Mades to the police. On the night of May 30, Mades was found in the yard at 102 Second Street northwest, terribly beaten and bruised, and unconscious. One of his legs was broken, his jaw was fractured, several of his teeth were knocked out and he had been severely kicked in the stomach. He was unable to get up or would not tell how he came to be in that plight, until Thursday.

The supposition is that jealousy was the cause of the attack, which Callan denies all knowledge of. Mades had just left a young woman when he was set upon.

Bail for Callan has not yet been fixed.

OLEO MAY LOOK LIKE BUTTER AND ESCAPE TAX

Internal Revenue Regulation Issued.

When Made Yellow by Natural Process, Without Artificial Ingredient, No Special Tax Levied.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue issued the following regulation yesterday regarding the manufacture of oleomargarine under the new law:

"If in the production of oleomargarine the mixtures or compounds set out in the law of 1886 are used, and these compounds are all free from artificial coloration, and no artificial coloration is produced by the addition of coloring matter as an independent and separate ingredient, a tax of one-fourth of 1 percent per pound only will be collected, although the finished product may look like butter of some shade of yellow."

"For example, if butter that has been artificially colored is used as a component part of the finished product oleomargarine (and that finished product looks like butter of any shade of yellow) as the oleomargarine is not free from artificial coloration the tax of 10 cents per pound will be assessed and collected."

"But if butter absolutely free from artificial coloration, or cotton seed oil free from artificial coloration, or any other of the mixtures or compounds legally used in the manufacture of the finished product oleomargarine has naturally a shade of yellow in no way produced by artificial coloration, and through the use of one or more of these unartificially colored legal component parts of oleomargarine the finished product should look like butter of any shade of yellow, this product will be subject to a tax of only one-fourth of 1 cent per pound, as it is absolutely free from artificial coloration that has caused it to look like butter of any shade of yellow."

Not long ago John D. Rockefeller, the richest man in America, said, in talking to a Sunday-school class, that he regarded his success in life largely to his ability to influence others. Lincoln, Lee, Napoleon and Alexander the Great all won fame and renown by their wonderful power of personal influence. Jay Gould, over the years, by the same power, J. P. Morgan organized the billion-dollar steel trust and enriched himself by millions simply by his marvelous ability to influence others. There are today thousands of men with the brains and education of Mr. Morgan who are practically paupers. They have the ability to organize a trust, but they have not sufficient power of personal influence. Personal influence, will-power, stamina—call it what you will—has from the creation of man been the subtle force that has brought wealth, fame and renown to those who were fortunate enough to possess it.

This strange, mysterious influence is inherent in every human being. By the methods explained by the New York specialist in human culture any intelligent person can develop a wonderfully magnetic personality, and learn how to read the character, secrets, and the lives of others in a few days' study at his own home. You can use this marvelous power without the knowledge of your most intimate friends and associates. You can use it to obtain lucrative employment, to secure an advance in salary, to win the friendship and influence of others to obtain a greater share of happiness from life. You can be respected, honored and become a leader in your community.

If you are not fully satisfied with your present condition and circumstances; if you long for greater success or more money; if you are not able to influence others to the extent you desire, the reporter would advise you to write at once for free copy of this great work now being given away by the Columbia Scientific Academy.

Mrs. R. C. Young, of 312 Indiana Street, Lawrence, Kan., recently sent for a copy of this book. After carefully examining it and testing the methods of personal influence on her friends and associates, she makes the following statements in a letter to a friend: "The instructions given by the Columbia Scientific Academy have been worth to me more than all the previous reading of my life. I wish every woman in this country could read
